

Blue Ribbon Tea

enjoys the proud distinction of being the most popular tea in every Province of the Dominion of Canada.

"The best value
for the least money
is its motto

I Want A Real Coon.

INTRODUCTION.

Moderato.

1. Pars a good for nuth - in' rag - ged coon comes roun' a court - in' me, And I'm
2. Now I wants to have a real coon like the swell coons that I see, I've n

p

most a shamed he has the cheek to call, Cos he tries to put on heaps of style when seen 'em et the thea - tre all life long, They will dance a - round up - on the stage with he's a sight to see, He's got nuth - in' to his name but lots of clothes way up in G, An' they take me clear to Heab - en with a gall: I've a - told him he will nev - er do, he am not good e - nough, I've a song: But the coons a - roun' my neigh - ber - hood, they don't dress up a bit, Oh con - told him he's a would-be nuth-in' more, An' he knows I'm on to him, cos' he pared to dem stage folks the rest are jays. So I'm will-in' eb'ry time, to give can't get in the swim, And dar's many a time I've told him at de door:— Oh! up my lit-tle dime, Jes' to watch the real coon with his win-nin' ways:— for Refrain. b. 3. 2.

I want a real coon, hand-some gen-teel coon, Coon like my p 2nd time f

own re-la-tions, I don't want no im-i-ta-tions, Some coon dat's haugh ty, swell dressed and sport y, A real coon dis gal am wait in for.

